

Research Grants 2008

Osteosynthesis and Trauma Care Foundation

in collaboration with AIOD is offering

Research Grants up to US $ 50,000 in the field of orthopaedic trauma surgery and Young Investigator's Grants of US $ 10,000

The grant proposals should focus on

- Biology of fracture healing, including the treatment or enhancement of fracture repair
- Osteoporosis and augmentation of fracture fixation in osteoporotic fractures
- New technologies in fracture fixation, including computer-assisted surgery
- Prophylaxis and treatment of infections in fractures
- Multi-center prospective clinical trials in fracture care

Timelines

- Website applications available February 15th, 2007
- Pre-proposals submission deadline May 15th, 2007
- Full-length grant application deadline October 15th, 2007
- Grant Award notification December 2007

For detailed information please refer to <http://www.traumacareinstitute.org>